

Lucinda L. Maine Transformation Fund

Supporting the AACP Transformation Center

The AACP Board of Directors has established the Lucinda L. Maine Transformation Fund to provide opportunities for individuals and organizations to help accelerate change and advance the pharmacy profession. Its mission is to support the AACP Transformation Center in its work to address the need to educate, enhance, expand, and sustain a pharmacy workforce that contributes to medication use optimization and health outcomes.

You can help transform pharmacy education and practice by giving to the Lucinda L. Maine Transformation Fund.

With your support, together we can create a world of healthy people and optimize the pharmacy workforce.

About the Transformation Center

The AACP Transformation Center is a unit within AACP's organizational structure designed to embolden academic pharmacy's contributions to increase the pace of change in pharmacy education and practice. Its two-pronged mission is:

Accelerate Pharmacy Practice Transformation

Projects and collaboration models that are replicable and most effective in:

- Improving health outcomes
- Reducing health disparities through medication use optimization, chronic disease management, and other pharmacist-provided patient-care services

Accelerate Academic Innovation

Pharmacy educational programs that deliver medication use optimization, improve health outcomes and reduce health disparities by:

- Matching didactic education to clinical training
- Building collaborative relationships with other healthcare disciplines
- Fostering life-long learning and research
